 SERMON SERIES

- May 30th -
Serving Others

There are needs everywhere, and the more we can meet them, the more we can show a watching world the love of God.
 How can you be a light in our world today?

JUNE 2021

Do you experience fear?
 Do you struggle with jealousy?
 Do you struggle to trust in God?

Join us for a sermon series on the books of Samuel as we study the challenges of King Saul and the importance of keeping God in the center of our hearts.

Overcoming Fear and Anxiety

1. What are you worried about? What are you afraid of?
2. With fear and anxiety your thoughts and emotions seem to control you instead of you controlling them. Read 1 Timothy 1:7, "For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind."
3. Life is difficult. Past and/or present circumstances offer many reasons for fear and anxiety. Paul gave us a clear prescription for thinking. Focus your thoughts on what is true, honest, just, pure, lovely, and of good report (Philippians 4:8). Work to bring "every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ" (2 Corinthians 10:5).
4. Can you imagine Peter, John, or Paul wringing their hands or losing any sleep worrying about what the devil might be doing? Fear led Peter to sin in denying Jesus. But only weeks later he stood before the authorities fearless, unfazed by their threats (Acts 4:13). Peter overcame fear through spending time with Jesus, seeing Him alive, and being filled with the Holy Spirit. You can too.
5. You might be tempted to quit if one battle against fear and anxiety does not lead to permanent freedom. But lasting joy requires your continued involvement. Paul says, "Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground, and after you have done everything, to stand. Stand firm then..." (Ephesians 6:13-14, NIV).
